The player walks into the bar a little late when the waitress giggles and tells them that the "All-You-Can-Drink" special ends in about 15 seconds. The player will select drinks from her tray. Each drink the player selects will display an alcohol proof, which is the bonus value. When the countdown reaches zero, the bonus is over.

It's last call and the bartender needs a hand getting the drinks out! The player will disperse drinks down the bar to waiting customers. For helping, the bartender will award the player a bonus for each drink they successfully slide across the bar to the customer's hand. The thankful customer's may even tip the player.

The bartender shows off her flair skills. The Player will select 3 bottles, each will reveal a bonus value. If the bartender drops a bottle, the value of that bottle will be awarded to the player.

The Bartender challenges the player to a game of Quarters. The Bartender will award a bonus if the Player's quarter makes it in the cup and take a shot. Keep making quarters in the cup and he'll continue to entertain and award some strong bonus credits!
